Saxon... High Lights

By BONNIE WILLIAMS

Junior Variety Five is now well under way having started on Monday and concluding tomorrow. Monday the juniors presented a mystery dance band from Morningside High. They played for a dance held on the quad for all ticket holders. Pineapple juice was served Tuesday.

Wednesday saw the first slave day at North High. Today a variety show, "Best of '55 and '56" will be presented, to all of those people who bought tickets on the quad.

The crowning of Robinson Crusoe and his girl Friday will be the main attraction at the shipwreck dance to be held Friday evening. The Junior Variety Five will be a traditional activity put on by the juniors every year to raise money for the junior-senior prom.

For Girls Only
"Lady Saxon's Wardrobe" is the theme for the Girls League Fashion show to be held on the Quad, May 16. The quad will be decorated very effectively for this occasion and records will provide the music.

Narrator Becky Reynoso will describe the clothes being displayed in detail. Everything from cotton skirts to suits will be shown. The sponsoring teachers for this event are Mrs. Duke and Miss McClurkin.

Spring Concert Saturday
The Saxon music department's first annual spring concert will be held this Saturday evening at the Torrance high auditorium at 8 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from any band, orchestra, choir or girls glee club members.

Saxons Emerge Victorious
The Saxon Varsity and Junior Varsity baseball teams romped over Culver City's teams (who just recently beat Beverly Hills) last week. Score: Varsity-Culver, 7, North, 12. Junior Varsity: Culver, 3, North, 6.
